IN WOMEN'S TENNIS TOURNEY.

Fifteen Year Old Kansas City Girl Plays Brilliant Game.

Kansas City, Mo., June 24.—All three Chicago entrants in the central west tennis tournament for women, in progress here, outclassed their opponents in their first matches played Wednesday.

Mrs. Malcolm McNeill, holder of the Chicago city championship, met the most opposition of any of the three in Miss Ruth Hager, a 15 year old Kansas City girl. Miss Hager played a dashing game. The Chicago woman won 6-2, 5-2.

Miss Charles B. Neeley, who shares the Chicago doubles championship, defeated Miss Patience Hocker of Kansas City, 6-1, 6-1.

Miss Louise Pound, the other Chicago player, won from Mrs. S. I. Flournoy, 6-1, 6-1.

All of the matches were first affairs, delayed by the late arrival of the Chicago players. A light rain stopped the doubles play this afternoon after one match had been played. In that Miss Neeley and Miss Pound easily defeated two Kansas City players, Miss Ruth Barnes and Miss Hazel Cope, in straight sets, both 6-0.

ONE-ARMED GOLFER.

Phenomenal Caddy Plans to Play for the Metropolitan Championship.

New York, June 24.—A one-armed golfer named Louis Martucci, caddy master of the Essex Country club, will try for metropolitan honors at the open championship at the Fox Hills golf club July 8-9.

Louis lost his arm when a small boy, and since then has been employed by the Essex club as a caddy, then as a caddy master. He developed pronounced ability as a player, and holds the course record at Essex Country club, going the round in 69.

Wamego in the Trolley League.

Manhattan, Kan., June 24.—Wamego has been given a berth in the Trolley Baseball League, taking the place of Fort Riley. The league is now composed of Wamego, St. George, Junction City and Manhattan. Fort Riley was dropped for financial reasons.

White-Welsh Bout Arranged.

Chicago, June 24.—Nate Lewis, on behalf of Charley White, the crack knocker out, has closed with Freddie Welsh for a ten round bout at the Brighton Beach motorhome for the night of July 5. The men are to make 135 at 3 o'clock.

CABARET BASEBALL.

Cabaret baseball has come. They've started it out in St. Louis at the home of the Cardinals. Schuyler Britton believes the home fans will enjoy their afternoon at the ball game, if they are entertained with songs and music, even though the cards don't come out at the big end of the score.

At a recent game, Britton had a brass band and some cabaret singers. Between innings and for an hour before the game started the band and singers entertained the fans with selections.

The fans voted a card affair a big success and said they had a good time though the cards did lose by a big score.

four said that Smith could not repeat. The runner again won.

In only one way is Eddie Collins more valuable than Ty Cobb and that is as a fielder, for the infielder naturally has more chances to aid his team upon the defense than does the outfielder. There is no telling, however, what Ty would do were he afforded the same opportunity. As an outfielder he stars, and the chances are he would be a wonder if assigned to the infield.

While Sam Crawford does not come into the limelight as much as his famous teammate, Ty Cobb, he is, nevertheless, almost as valuable a man as Cobb. Crawford's hitting always is clean cut and is not aided by speed of foot. His drives have the resounding ring to them and are usually hard hits which the fielders cannot reach. Crawford is playing as good ball now as he ever did in his career, and he is sure to be a star five or six years longer because of the fact that he takes excellent care of himself.
